DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, TELUGU & MATHEMATICS FIELD TRIP - 21.09.2022

The Dept of History arranged a Field trip to Sri Vedanarayana Temple, Nagalapuram, Chittoor Dist on 21-09-2022. The trip was arranged for II sem Students B.A and MPC to expose them to Architecture of Sri Krishnadevaraya Period.

Vedanarayana Temple or Matsya Narayana Temple is a Hindu temple in Nagalapuram, Andhra Pradesh, India. It is a Vaishnava temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu in the form of Matsya. Sri Veda Narayana Swamy temple is a fine example of the Vijayanagar style of architecture. Krishnadeva Raya, the emperor of Vijayanagara, is said to have constructed the Temple in the last years of his reign at the behest of his mother Nagamamba. It is said that this place was then known as Nagamambapuram. The Temple is famous for Surya Pooja Utsavam, considered as an astronomical marvel. Three days of the Surya Puja, the sun's rays fall on the main deity from 6 to 6:15 pm. On the first day, the sun's rays fall on the feet, the second day on the chest and the third day on the Lord's forehead. The Temple has several subsidiary shrines devoted to Vedavathi Thayar (that faces the main sanctum and has huge many-pillared mandapam, Lakshmi Narayan and Sri Hayagriva. There are also sculptures of Vigneshwara and other gods, on the outer wall of the Sanctum. There is a flag post inside the main entrance.
