Brief Report

The Department of English Organized a five-day Bridge course for the first year students from 22.09.2025 to 26.09.2025. Various activities were conducted to introduce them to student-centred methods that make language learning easy and enjoyable. The student took part actively and showed great enthusiasm throughout the course.

Day 1: Inauguration and Self-Introduction

The course began with formal inauguration on 22.09.2025. Later students introduced themselves, which helped them speak confidently in front of others. They learned to express basic personal information clearly using English in a formal setting. This activity was planned to reduce hesitation and encourage active participation from the very first day.

Day 2: Name Game

The name game helped students interact with peers and remember each other's names through speaking. The game was conducted to improve listening skills and quick verbal responses in a fun, friendly way.

Day 3: Word Antyakshari (Vocabulary Building)

Students recalled new words, which strengthened their vocabulary. This game encouraged quick thinking and improved word usage in communication. It also builds confidence in speaking without fear of mistakes.

Day 4: Storytelling / Group Story Narration

Through this activity, students learn to speak in sequence, improving fluency and clarity. Working as a group enhances teamwork, listening and turn-taking skills. This activity helped the students to use imagination and language creatively.

Day 5 : Quiz ~~time~~

The quiz encouraged active participation, quick thinking, and clear communication of answers. It helped reinforce what they learned during the week.

Valedictory :

The valedictory session gives students a chance to share feedback and speak confidently in a formal setting.

Brief Report:

Departments of English, Botany, Telugu, Statistics and Mathematics of GJC (A), Nagari Organized a Two-Day Educational Tour to Arthur Murugan Temple, Bhavani Temple, Isha Coimbatore, Kodaikanal for II and III year Science students. This tour was accompanied by the principal Dr. R. Venugopal.

Day 1, we visited Arthur Murugan Temple and studied architectural significance. Also learned about the cultural and historical importance of the temples. Later we visited Maruthamalai. Apart from trekking expedition we had the divine feeling of having the darshan of Lord Subramanian. From there we went to Isha, Coimbatore. It was a great experience to visit Isha yoga centre, Meditation Hall and other practices at the centre. It was really soothing to heart to learn and ~~ab~~ adapt sustainable living practices.

Day 2, we visited Kodaikanal and explored Botanical Garden and visited Guna Caves. Later we visited the Chocolate Factory and experienced the manufacturing process of chocolates. On the whole Students and staff enjoyed the tour to the core.

Brief Report

The English Club of the Department of English, GDC(A), Nagari celebrated English Language Day on 24.04.2026 as a mark of respect and tribute to William Shakespeare, who made remarkable contributions to English language and literature.

The programme began with the formal invitation of dignitaries to the dais, followed by a warm welcome address delivered by Ms. A.K. Lokeswari, a first-year Botany student. The session was then taken forward by Dr. M. Pankaja, Lecturer in English. This was followed by a series of speeches presented by students from various disciplines on meaningful topics such as the importance of the English language, the contributions of Shakespeare, and the need for continuous practice to become effective speakers.

The event became lively and engaging with a number of creative skits performed by students. These skits conveyed important messages, especially highlighting the importance of English in today's world, particularly during job interviews. They also showed that English can be learned in simple ways—at home, while talking with friends, and through storytelling etc. Performances on themes like "The Power of Saying Sorry," "Honesty is the Best Policy," and "English Opens Opportunities," along with adaptations from Shakespeare's works like Macbeth and As You Like It, kept the audience fully engaged.

Following the performances, Dr. M.Pankaja. Lecturer in English presented a PowerPoint on the significance of English Language Day and Shakespeare's contribution to English language and literature. Later, Academic Coordinator Dr. G. Swathi emphasized that English serves as a global link connecting people across the world. Dr. M. Revathi, In-charge of the English Department, spoke about Shakespeare's themes, his creative use of language, and his lasting impact on literature. The Vice Principal, Dr. M. Bhaskar Raju also shared valuable thoughts on how important English language these days.

The Principal, Dr. R. Venugopal gave key note address and appreciated all the participants for their excellent performances. He encouraged students to practice English every day to build confidence and succeed in their careers. He also advised them to make use of every opportunity to improve their language skills so they can compete equally with students from urban areas.

At the end of the programme, the principal and other dignitaries appreciated the students by giving small tokens of encouragement along with their blessings. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students and active involvement from staff members including Dr. P. Maheswari, Dr. M. Aruna Kumari, Dr. P. Suhasini, Smt. Uma Maheswari, Smt. Kalivani, Mr. R. Lal Basha, and Mr. Siva Kumar.

Student participants such as K. Hemachandrika, Ms. A. Gangothri, Ms. S. Thulasi, Ms. P. A. Venda Thulasi, Ms. G. S. Kammani, Mr. K. Sreenu, Ms. M. D. Tharani, Ms. Nirmala, Ms. S. V. Priyadarsini, Ms. Arisha, Ms. G. Bhanupriya, and Ms. M. S. Nandini impressed the audience with their excellent performances.

The principal also appreciated the Department of English faculty for their initiative in organizing such a meaningful programme to motivate students to practice and improve their English language skills.
