Government Degree College (A), Nagari
48th Annual Day celebrations - 10.04.2026

The Annual Day of Government Degree College (A), Nagari was celebrated with great enthusiasm and grandeur on 10.04.2026 in the college Open Auditorium. The event brought together students, faculty, guests, and stakeholders in a festive atmosphere to celebrate the achievements and progress of the institution.

Sri. Gali Bhanu Prakash garu, MLA, Nagari Constituency graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. Dr. R. Rajendra Naidu garu, Retired Principal, GDC, Puttur, attended as the Guest of Honour, while Sri Venkata Chalapathi garu, Principal, PCN Government Junior College, Nagari, and Smt. G. Manjula garu, Principal, MSMN Government Junior College for Girls, Nagari attended as the Special Invitees.

The programme commenced at 10:30 AM with the arrival of the Chief Guest and other dignitaries. The NCC cadets welcomed the guests with a Guard of Honour, adding dignity and discipline to the event. A major highlight of the day was the formal inauguration of the newly constructed Seminar Hall with a seating capacity of 150, built under RUSA funds. The Seminar Hall was inaugurated by the Chief Guest along with the Guest of Honour and Special Guests.

Following the inauguration, the formal session began with the invitation of dignitaries onto the dais and a warm welcome address to the guests and participants. The celebrations were auspiciously inaugurated with the traditional lighting of the lamp, followed by a prayer song.

Dr.R.Vengugopal, Principal of the college, presented the Annual Report, highlighting the institution's academic achievements, student accomplishments, infrastructure development, extension activities, and overall progress made during the academic year. Later, the Vice Principal Dr.M.Bhaskar Raju addressed the gathering and shared important updates regarding student union activities and other developmental initiatives undertaken by the college. This was followed by an address by the Student Union Chairperson, Ms. Hari Priya from final B.com., who expressed her heartfelt experiences, emotional connection with the institution, academic journey, and memorable moments spent on the campus.

In his inspiring speech, the Chief Guest motivated students to cultivate the habit of reading and develop friendship with books, emphasizing that books remain the most loyal and irreplaceable companions in life. The Guest of Honour advised students to stay away from wrong friendships and harmful habits, and encouraged them to remain focused on their goals to build a successful future. The Special Guests also addressed the students, sharing their valuable guidance and blessings for their bright future.

As part of the celebrations, prizes and certificates were distributed by the dignitaries to students who excelled in academics, sports, games, and cultural activities, recognizing their hard work and talent.

After a short lunch break, the celebrations continued with a vibrant cultural programme presented by the students. The performances, including dances, songs, and other cultural items, were truly an eye feast to the audience and added colour and joy to the occasion.

The Annual Day celebrations concluded successfully with the collective teamwork and coordination of all stakeholders of the college, making the event memorable and meaningful for everyone present.

Birth anniversary celebrations of
Mahatma Jyotirao Phule and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar - 15.04.2026

The NSS Unit of Government Degree College, Nagari organized the birth anniversary celebrations of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar on 15.04.2026 with great enthusiasm and reverence. The programme commenced with floral tributes to the portraits of the great leaders by the Principal Dr. R. Venugopal, NSS Programme Officer Dr. E. Gopi, Vice Principal Dr. Bhaskar Raju, IQAC Coordinator Dr. Ramanjulu, Academic Coordinator Dr. G. Swathi, faculty members, NSS volunteers, and students. The event created an atmosphere of inspiration and reflection on the ideals of equality, education, and social justice championed by both leaders.

Addressing the gathering, Principal Dr. R. Venugopal highlighted the invaluable contributions of Jyotirao Phule and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar towards the upliftment of the oppressed sections of society through education and social reform. He emphasized that their vision continues to guide the nation in promoting equality, constitutional values, and human dignity. NSS Programme Officer Dr. E. Gopi spoke on the theme “Relevance of Phule-Ambedkar Ideology Today,” stressing the need for youth to cultivate social responsibility, scientific temper, and commitment to justice. Vice Principal Dr. Bhaskar Raju and other speakers recalled the sacrifices and struggles of both leaders in eradicating discrimination and creating awareness about the importance of education as a tool for empowerment.

The programme witnessed active participation from students, NSS volunteers, and faculty members, who expressed their admiration for the enduring legacy of the two reformers. The speakers encouraged students to follow the ideals of equality, fraternity, and service to society in their daily lives. The event concluded with a collective pledge by all participants to uphold constitutional values, promote harmony, and work towards building an inclusive and socially just society.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH - ENGLISH CLUB ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAY CELEBRATIONS

The English Club of the Department of English, GDC(A), Nagari celebrated English Language Day on 24.04.2026 as a mark of respect and tribute to William Shakespeare, who made remarkable contributions to English language and literature.

The programme began with the formal invitation of dignitaries to the dais, followed by a warm welcome address delivered by Ms. A.K. Lokeswari, a first-year Botany student. The session was then taken forward by Dr. M. Pankaja, Lecturer in English. This was followed by a series of speeches presented by students from various disciplines on meaningful topics such as the importance of the English language, the contributions of Shakespeare, and the need for continuous practice to become effective speakers.

The event became lively and engaging with a number of creative skits performed by students. These skits conveyed important messages, especially highlighting the importance of English in today's world, particularly during job interviews. They also showed that English can be learned in simple ways—at home, while talking with friends, and through storytelling etc. Performances on themes like “The Power of Saying Sorry,” “Honesty is the Best Policy,” and “English Opens Opportunities,” along with adaptations from Shakespeare's works like Macbeth and As You Like It, kept the audience fully engaged.

Following the performances, Dr. M.Pankaja, lecturer in English presented a PowerPoint on the significance of English Language Day and Shakespeare's contribution to English language and literature. Later, Academic Coordinator Dr. G. Swathi emphasized that English serves as a global link connecting people across the world. Dr. M. Revathi, In-charge of the English Department, spoke about Shakespeare's themes, his creative use of language, and his lasting impact on literature. The Vice Principal, Dr. M. Bhaskar Raju also shared valuable thoughts on how important the English language is these days.

The Principal, Dr. R. Venugopal gave a keynote address and appreciated all the participants for their excellent performances. He encouraged students to practice English every day to build confidence and succeed in their careers. He also advised them to make use of every opportunity to improve their language skills so they can compete equally with students from urban areas.

At the end of the programme, the principal and other dignitaries appreciated the students by giving small tokens of encouragement along with their blessings. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students and active involvement from staff members including Dr. P. Maheswari, Dr. M. Aruna Kumari, Dr. P. Suhasini, Smt. Uma Maheswari, Smt. Kalivani, Mr. R. Lal Basha, and Mr. Siva Kumar.

Student participants such as K. Hemachandrika, Ms. A. Gangothri, Ms. S. Thulasi, Ms. P. A. Venda Thulasi, Ms. G. S. Kammani, Mr. K. Sreenu, Ms. M. D. Tharani, Ms. Nirmala, Ms. S. V. Priyadarsini, Ms. Arisha, Ms. G. Bhanupriya, and Ms. M. S. Nandini impressed the audience with their excellent performances.

The principal also appreciated the Department of English faculty for their initiative in organizing such a meaningful programme to motivate students to practice and improve their English language skills.
